

Christian Discipleship – Self-evaluation Questionnaire

Reproduced from Personal Disciplemaking by Chris Adsit

Directions: Answer each question by circling the most appropriate answer. Don't be tempted to respond untruthfully in order to put yourself in a more positive light, or to say what you think people want to hear – answer honestly. If it seems that none of the options presented are quite right, choose the one that most closely describes you, and put a question mark in the margin next to it.

1. I am [not sure, fairly sure, positive] that if I were to die today, I would immediately go to heaven.
2. I am [not sure, fairly sure, positive] that before I met Christ and invited Him into my life, I was a sinner headed for hell.
3. I have [minimal, average, thorough] knowledge of what the Bible is talking about when it says I am a “new creation.”
4. I am [not sure, fairly sure, positive] that all my sins have been forgiven.
5. I am [not sure, fairly sure, positive] that my salvation is permanent, and that I will never again be separated from God.
6. I have [minimal, average, thorough] knowledge about the many important changes that took place in me after I asked Christ into my life.
7. I have [minimal, average, thorough] understanding of how to be filled with the Holy Spirit.
8. I have [minimal, average, thorough] knowledge of the tension that exists between my new nature and my old nature, and why I still struggle with temptation even though I am a “new creation.”
9. I have [minimal, average, thorough] knowledge about the activities I can undertake that will help me grow spiritually in a balanced, steady fashion.
10. I have [minimal, average, thorough] understanding of why it is important for me to be involved actively in fellowship with other Christians.
11. I attend church [never, rarely, sometimes, weekly, twice a week].
12. I read the Bible [never, rarely, sometimes, frequently].
13. I [don't understand, have some idea, know very well] what people mean when they call the Bible the “Word of God.”
14. I know that prayer is simply talking to God, and I don't have any real difficulty doing it. [agree, disagree, “sort of”].

15. On the average, I have a period of personal, concentrated prayer _____ days a week, each session lasting about _____ minutes.
16. Right now, I could do a [poor, fair, good, great] job of telling another person how to become a Christian if the opportunity presented itself.
17. I feel [petrified, hesitant, willing, strongly motivated] to tell others about how they might come to a saving knowledge of Christ.
18. I am [not sure, fairly sure, positive] that adversity is a normal part of the Christian life; when I experience trials I [never, rarely sometimes, often] get mad at God and [never, rarely sometimes, often] go to Him for help.
19. I know that Satan is real [yes, no], that he seeks my downfall [yes, no], and I have [no, some, extensive] knowledge about how to resist him.
20. I have [minimal, average, thorough] knowledge of what to do when I sin, in order to restore fellowship between God and myself.
21. I am [terrible, fair, pretty good, very good] at managing time, goals and priorities in life.
22. I have [no, a vague, a fairly clear, a very clear] idea about what I want to accomplish in life.
23. I have a workable program in place that helps me set and reach personal goals successfully while managing my day-to-day activities effectively. [agree, disagree, "sort of"].
24. I see myself as having the potential of being [minimally, somewhat, very, extremely] significant to the advancement of the kingdom of God.
25. I would say at this point that I am [minimally, somewhat, very, extremely] motivated to pursue my spiritual development and my relationship with God actively.
