

“Walk In Him”

Ever start on a task and get distracted along the way? Ever have a specific destination in mind as you set off in the car only to find yourself needing to make a detour? It could be that you have an assignment due for school the next day and, despite telling yourself that you are going to get right to it, something else distracts you or demands your attention. Maybe it is a goal to lose weight but then that extra helping finds its way to your plate. Or maybe you make a list of three things that must get done today and you only get to one of them. That ever happen to you?

This same thing happens to us when we decide to follow Christ. We make a commitment to follow Him, we decide we are going to do what He says and go where He leads but find ourselves getting distracted, not doing wrong things, but not doing that one thing we had put our minds to. It's frustrating, isn't it?

“Walk In Him” is a new series of messages from the book of Colossians identifying what some of those distractions are that keep us from following hard after Christ. In his letter, Paul urges Christians to keep their “eyes on the prize” as they pursue Christ and ignore the attractions, distractions, and trivial pursuits of life.

If you have ever been distracted or wandered from what you know

God has been calling you to do, then these messages will be of great help. Invite a friend and plan to join us as together we walk in Him.
